

1 special order of the day on a subsequent day after the
2 Minority Report had been distributed to the Convention.

3 I don't think the members of this Convention, upon
4 learning that there was a Minority Report in process,
5 dealing with the subject that they were scheduled to take 6 up the next day, would hesitate in granting any reasonable
7 delay; so the Minority could have its report printed.

8 DELEGATE JOHNSON: Mr. Chairman, under the 9 existing rules, there is no cutoff date whatsoever for 10 the receipt of the Minority Report; in your Report you
11 speak of delay; so inasmuch as the rules require the re-
12 ceipt of a Minority Report, can't the Minority Report
13 follow the Report any time and would have to be received?

14 DELEGATE SCANLAN. No. You suggest that 15 perhaps these rules protect the Minority too much, as inter-
16 preted in one way. No. I think the answer would be 17 that while there is nothing in the rules that now imposes
18 a cutoff date on the submission of a Minority Report, 19 sensible and prudent protection of Minority rights who 20 move the Minority to try to get this Report out as soon as 21 possible, because there would be the contingency that if
